

Resources for Quaker Outreach

LEYM Advancement & Outreach Committee. Contact Mathilda Navias, Clerk, at mathilda1@lycos.com or (419) 448-0578. The committee is charged “To nurture and encourage small meetings, new meetings and worship groups by means of correspondence and personal visits”; also “To support meetings in attracting and welcoming new members and attenders by sharing helpful resources, providing feedback, and discussing meetings’ outreach needs with them when requested.” The committee maintains a binder with copies of various newcomer handouts that you are welcome to browse.

Friends General Conference (FGC) is an umbrella organization of a number of Yearly Meetings, including LEYM. FGC provides resources and opportunities that educate and invite members and attenders to experience, individually and corporately, God's living presence, and to discern and follow God's leadings. Its offices are in Philadelphia. FGC's Advancement & Outreach Committee maintains a web site at www.fgcquaker.org/ao/. You can find out about or download:

- helpful pamphlets, including the most recent version of the Inreach/Outreach Review
- FGC's Traveling Ministries Program, which can help provide programs fostering spiritual awareness and growth to Friends and meetings, including an Inreach/Outreach Workshop
- other support for meetings offered by FGC.

FGC's home page at www.fgcquaker.org also has helpful information on resources for Friends, including:

- Quakerbooks, a bookstore run by FGC
- Quakerfinder, a highly useable web site for locating Quaker meetings

Pendle Hill, a Quaker retreat center outside of Philadelphia, publishes the Pendle Hill Pamphlets. You can e-mail a request for a catalog to bookstore@pendlehill.org or phone 800-742-3150, ext. 2. There is also info on the web at <https://secure.netreach.net/pendle/bookstore.html>, but the site is under transition and not as helpful as it will hopefully become.

Quaker Hill Bookstore, in Richmond, Indiana, run by Friends United Meeting (FUM), another Quaker umbrella organization mainly for programmed Friends. On the web at www.quakerhillbooks.org/ or call 1-800-537-8838.

The Friends Tract Association maintains a web site at www.tractassociation.org/hitec.htm with the texts of a number of short tracts which you are free to copy and distribute. You can order printed versions of all the tracts the association publishes, along with a number of books. There is a search utility for the tracts. The mailing address is 1515 Cherry Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102.

www.quaker.org is the mama of all Quaker web sites. Here can be found links to all sorts of things Quaker, of interest to Quakers, and things that refer to Quakers. There are links to Yearly Meetings, Monthly Meetings, Quaker organizations, etc., etc. You can browse for hours here. This is hosted and maintained by an individual Friend out of the goodness of his heart.
